Activity Report

Objective:

The celebration of Matrubhasha Divas (Mother Language Day) aims to foster awareness and appreciation of linguistic diversity by promoting the use and understanding of mother tongues. The event seeks to preserve and revitalize endangered languages through documentation, education, and community initiatives, ensuring their transmission to future generations. By showcasing cultural traditions and encouraging multilingual education, Matrubhasha Divas fosters intercultural dialogue and enhances literacy in native languages. Additionally, the event advocates for language rights and inclusive policies, leveraging technology to support language learning and creative expression. Ultimately, it aims to build a sense of global solidarity, connecting local efforts with the international movement to celebrate and protect linguistic heritage. The event began with inauguration which all the participants had to attend to get further details.

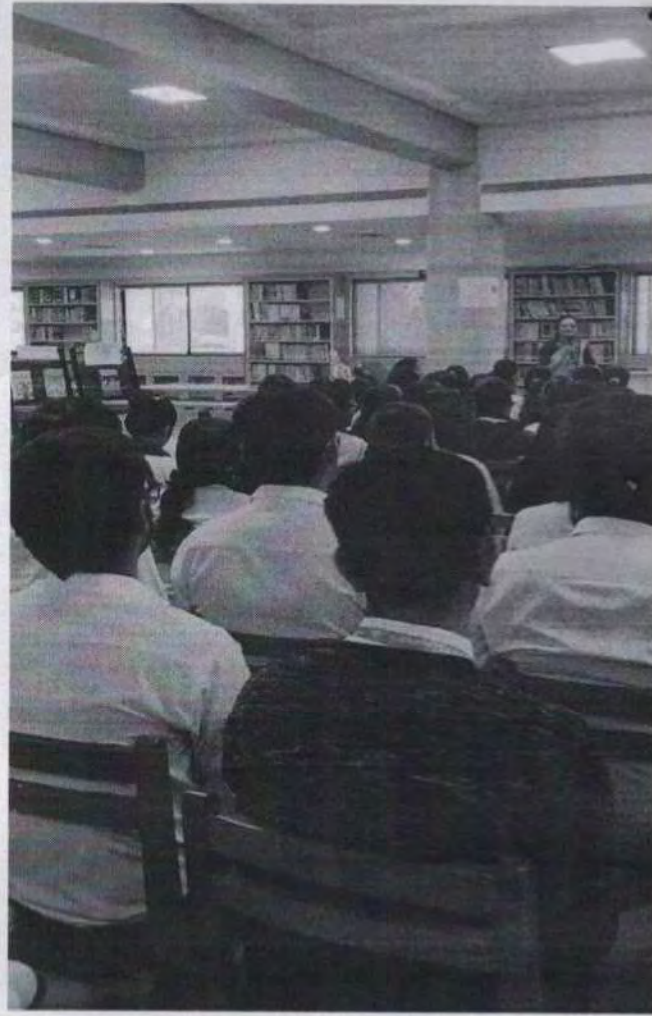

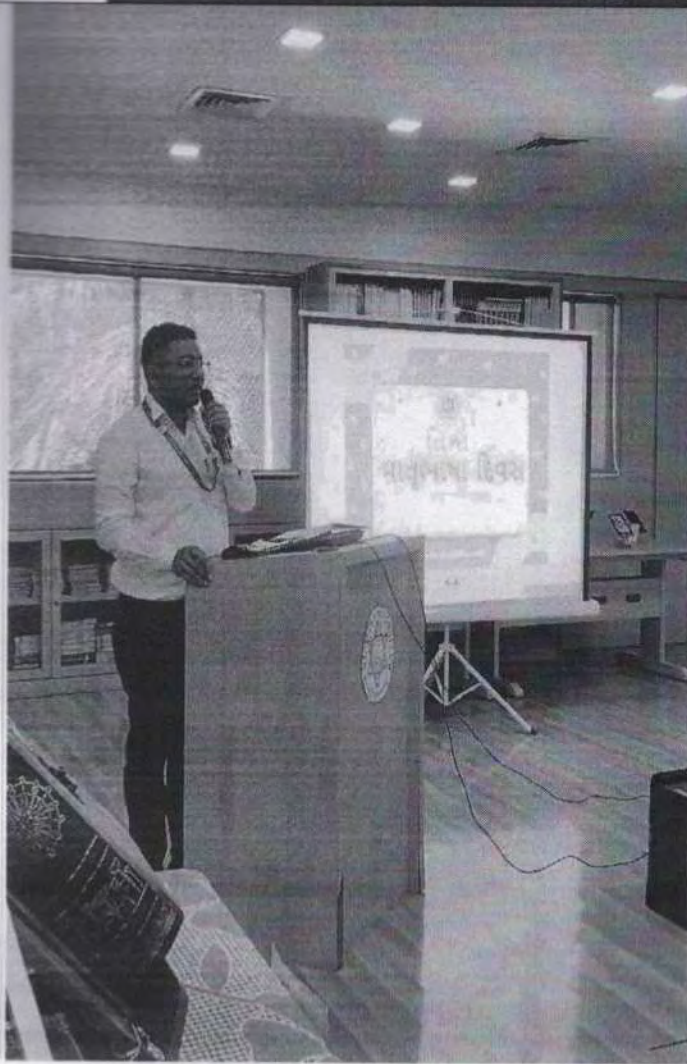

It was attended by Professor Emeritus Dr. G.D.Acharya and the main Librarian Dr. Sheetal Tank and other faculty members and students. Dignitaries addressed the students and shared their knowledge. Then the faculty coordinator of the event Dr. Jay Ranpura gave further details to the participants and at 10:30 am event started. Many students and faculty members participated in this event. At 12:00 all the events ended and all the participants were felicitated. The faculty coordinator Dr. Jay Ranpura thanked all the participants and dignitaries through vote of thanks and then the event ended

A Quiz as a celebration of National Youth Day

REPORT:

Date: 12/01/2024

In a vibrant celebration of National Youth Day (Online), Department of Commerce of Atmiya University hosted an intellectually stimulating event titled "A Quiz" to honor the ideals and thoughts of Swami Vivekananda, whose birthday is commemorated as National Youth Day. The event was organized aiming to foster knowledge, critical thinking, and a sense of unity among the students. The anticipation for "A Quiz" was palpable across the campus days before the event. Flyers, social media posts, and campus announcements had ensured maximum outreach, inviting students from all faculties to participate. The registration desk, set up a week prior, saw an overwhelming number of students signing up, showcasing the enthusiasm and competitive spirit among the youth. The event commenced at 11:30 AM, which was adorned with portraits of Swami Vivekananda and festoons, creating an ambiance of inspiration and reverence. The program began with a brief inaugural speech by Head of the Department (Commerce) Dr. Jayesh Zalavadiya, who highlighted the significance of youth empowerment and the role of education in nation-building. The quiz saw participation from entire university around 25 students. The competition was fierce yet friendly, with participants showcasing their knowledge and quick thinking. Participants, the team members expressed gratitude towards the organizers and emphasized the importance of collective learning and curiosity. The celebration of National Youth Day through this quiz not only paid homage to the visionary Swami Vivekananda but also ignited the minds of young students, encouraging them to think critically and work towards the betterment of society. "A Quiz" on National Youth Day Atmiya University was more than a competition; it was a celebration of youth, knowledge, and the enduring spirit of inquiry that defines the path of progress.

Garba is a traditional dance form and a vital aspect of Gujarati culture, celebrated especially during Navratri, a nine-night Hindu festival honoring the goddess Durga. Originating from the state of Gujarat in western India, Garba involves rhythmic circular dancing performed around a central symbol, often a clay lamp (garbo) representing the goddess's presence or energy. The dance symbolizes the cyclical nature of life, creation, and devotion, reflecting Hindu beliefs about birth, death, and rebirth. During Navratri, each of the nine days is dedicated to a different form of the goddess Durga, collectively known as Navadurga. Each form represents unique aspects of feminine divinity, such as power, knowledge, beauty, courage, and compassion.

Atmiya University has organized ATMIYA Shakti Parva – Rass Garba Competition for all the female members of atmiya university on 18/10/2023, Wednesday from 05:00 pm to 07:30 pm. Location was AU Central Plaza near fountain at atmiya university campus. The event was end with Prasad.

The word "Gurupurnima" is derived from the Sanskrit words "Guru," meaning "teacher" or "guide," and "Purnima," meaning "full moon." It falls on the full moon day (Purnima) in the Hindu month of Ashadha (June-July).
